

Cory J. Furman, Q.C., C.Dir.

Cory brings his significant experience of 27 years in Law to the Regina Airport Authority as a new board member in 2022. He is a strong community advocate and has served on numerous boards in Saskatchewan since 2015. With his certification as a Chartered Director, Cory has served eHealth Saskatchewan, Cowessess Ventures Ltd, Creative Saskatchewan, Institute of Corporate Directors – Saskatchewan Chapter, Regina & District Chamber of Commerce, Saskatchewan Trade & Export Partnership, and the Dean’s Advisory Board – Kenneth Levene Graduate School of Business at the University of Regina. His significant experience in practicing law, issue spotting, issues management and de-risking of business projects make him an asset to the organizations he works with. He continues to advocate in favour of an enhanced organ donation policy in Saskatchewan, and spends his personal time at the rink with his family in one of his favourite roles – Hockey Dad. He is known to be an aspiring wanderer of the world and barbecue champion.
